CAPTION

SINGAPORE: A sprinkle of "snow" and a dazzle of Disney Magic will welcome travellers and visitors this Christmas at Changi Airport as it transforms into an enchanting winter wonderland.

Children will be able to experience a magical time with Mickey Mouse and friends in an elaborate Disney and country-themed set up. Some of the dazzling decorations on display include a three-storey castle at Terminal 3 Departure Hall where children can enjoy multi-sensory shows.

A Community Art Wall project and Mickey Mouse Club House Bouncy Playground have also been set up at Changi's Terminal 3 for children to bask in the festive cheer.

On weekends, visitors can interact with roving performers such as the Gingerbread Man, Toy Soldier, Drummer Boy, Fairy Princess and Candy Cane Stilt Walkers.

Other Christmas attractions on display include:

- Picturesque displays of snowy Swiss chalets at Terminal 3's transit area
- Traditional Japanese cottages at Terminal 2's transit area
- Broadway-styled New York City at Terminal 1's transit area
- Spanish costumes adorned on larger-than-life Mickey and Minnie Mouse topiaries at the Terminal 2 public area

Changi Airport will top it all off by making it "snow" at the Departure Hall.

Christmas festivities at Changi Airport run from Nov 14, 2014 to Jan 5, 2015. Show times on weekdays are hourly from 5pm to 9pm, while show times on weekends, public holidays and eve of public holidays are every other hour from 1pm to 5pm, and then hourly from 6pm to 9pm.
